

Half of the loci present in every genome are still called novel

Novelty falls as loci become common (Spearman rho = -0.20, p = 0.0025), then rebounds at 67/67.

